A Scholarship for Tualatin High School Seniors

Leonard A. Pohl

The Leonard A. Pohl Scholarship Fund was established in 1991 to commemorate Mr. Pohl's graduation from Tualatin High School in 1934. The property on which the present Tualatin High School was built is on land once owned and farmed by Mr. Pohl and his wife, Juanita. This scholarship in his name may be awarded to a graduate who intends to enroll in any course of study offered by a Community College in Oregon. The primary focus of study cannot be data processing and/or computer science. It was Mr. Pohl's intent to encourage and assist students inclined in a career in trades or farming, etc.

*A Scholarship Awarded to a Tualatin HS Senior Attending an Oregon Public Community College or Trade School
